TO MAKE A TEST CASE.

Mr. Passell Fined Under the Civil Rights Law.

Jacob Fussell, the ice cream man, was in the Police Court this afternoon charged with a violation of the civil rights act. During the latter part of October Missouri Butler and Martha E. Wilson went Into Mr Fussell's leecream parlor, and they testified that he refused to serve them with cream. Mr. E. B. Hay acted as the defendant's attorney and stated that he proposed to make a test case of this. No defense was made, and by consent judgment of $100 was taken against Mr. Fussell. An appeal was noted and the necessary bond was furnished.

Fighting a Will, Hatherly Spear has filed a petition in the Probate Court, in which he asks that the will of the late Robert Spear may not be admitted to probate, ifle believes that the decedent made no will, and that any papers filed purporting to be his last will and testament are fraud-The petitioner also alleges that Mr. Spear was not of sound mind at the time of his death, and that the execution of the will, if it was ever signed by Spear, was procured by fraud and de-

BUT THEY FIRED THE SALUTE.

Not Until Considerable Difficulty Was | Such Proceedings Will Not Be Toler-Found tietting a Location, The Central Democratic Committee finally fired on the piece of ground southwest of Seventeenth and Batreets. The salute consisted of fifty two guns, and was fired by Battery A of the Light Artillery under the command of Lieutenant A. P. Robbins.

Clerks, but the Postoffice Department will investigate the matter and let the pestoffice employes understand that it is not safe to play jokes on Republicans in off years.

Postmaster Sherwood has submitted

It was originally intended to do the firing on the White Lot and a permit to that effect had been granted by Major Moore subject to the approval of Colonia Einst, Superintendent of Public Buildings and Grounds.
Colonel Ernst refused permission, however, to allow the fixing to take place on any improved reservation, as he could find no precedent for doing so. Mr. M. I. Weller of the Democratic Committee secured the original permit granfed in 1888 to the Republic ms and allowing a solute of 100 guns to be fired on the Monument for, but Colonel Ernst persisted in his refusal, and the committee was obliged to seek firing grounds at Seventeenth and B streets. where the salutes were successfully

Colonel Ernest denies that politics had anything to do with his refusal, and says that it was made in the interests of the improved property.

Wants a Divorce,

The use of Ayer's Sarsaparilla. One bottle may not cure "right off" a complaint of years; persist until a cure is effected. As a general rule, improvement follows shortly after beginning the use of this medicine. With many people, the effect is immediately noticeable; but some constitutions are less amountaints. asceptible to medicinal influences than others, and the curative process may, there-fore, in such cases, be less prompt. Perse-verance in using this remedy is sure of its reward at last. Sconer or later, the most
